Does Promas work with Third Party Services?

RentTrack combines next-day payment processing with built-in rent reporting to all three credit bureaus to increase online and on-time payments. As the most tightly integrated payment processing platform for Promas users, RentTrack offers the ultimate in convenience and security, with no time-consuming file imports. Let residents get the credit they deserve when they conveniently pay online via ACH or credit card, while you get fast, next-day funding for all payment types that syncs directly with Promas – automatically.

MyRental™ is a self-service online rental application and tenant screening solution. There are no membership or set-up fees and you can access MyRental today to purchase tenant screening reports. Their reports incorporate data beyond a credit report with SafeRent Score™, the only statistically validated scoring model in the rental housing industry.

It helps predict the lease performance of applicants, which aids leasing professionals in selecting the right residents to maximize revenue. SafeRent Score can also help communities adjust to changing market conditions.

Streamline your inspections and grow your business with Inspect & Cloud as your secret weapon. From the beautifully laid out reports to the look and feel of the app, Inspect & Cloud provides a delightful experience when doing property inspections.

A highly customizable app where even the apps inspection buttons can be changed to fit your needs. Take advantage of the unlimited video reports and maintenance notifications to keep your team informed and shorten make-ready times.

Get started using the powerful PROMAS integration to automate inspection systems and elevate your company's productivity.

ACH.COM integrates with Promas to provide cost effective electronic transactions for your business and allows you to easily streamline your accounting operations.

ScreeningOne is a powerful resident screening system that helps property managers make informed rental decisions and can optionally streamline the lease signing process with electronic document signing. Selecting the best qualified residents quickly and efficiently helps reduce loss from collections, evictions, and legal action. Using the most comprehensive data available, ScreeningOne eliminates guesswork and provides instant recommendations that mitigate risk.

Promas is an open platform. We are committed to adding NARPM affiliated integration partners and providing users with options to exchange data with outside services.
